

Usha Martin University

Usha Martin University organized an orientation/Deeksharambh program for the newly admitted students from 26.08.24 to 30.08.24. The five-day program included important sessions on various topics. One session was on anti-ragging, where students were made aware of the UGC rules and regulations for ragging on campus and also about the university committee dedicated to ragging issues in the campus. It was informed to students that the University has a zero-tolerance policy for ragging and stern action will be taken against those found guilty.
