NOTICE

Cultural Club is delighted to announce the upcoming Constitution Day celebration at Usha Martin University, which will take place on November 26, 2022. Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Divas, holds significant importance as it marks the day our nation's Constitution was adopted. This event serves as an occasion to commemorate the wisdom and vision of the framers of our Constitution. The celebration will feature a series of events, including a formal inaugural ceremony, guest lectures by distinguished speakers on the relevance and principles of the Indian Constitution, interactive sessions to discuss constitutional rights and responsibilities, cultural performances showcasing our diverse heritage, and a collective recitation of the Constitution Day pledge reaffirming our commitment to the ideals enshrined in our Constitution.

We extend a warm invitation to all members of the Usha Martin University community, including students, faculty, and staff, to join us in this significant celebration. Please adhere to a formal dress code for this official event. Your participation in the Constitution Day celebration will contribute to a deeper understanding and appreciation of the principles that form the bedrock of our nation's democracy.

We eagerly anticipate your presence and active involvement in making this event a memorable and meaningful one for our university community.
